

Mortgage Broker Fee Disclosure

You have applied to a mortgage broker or to a regulated lender or a mortgage banker acting in the capacity of a mortgage broker, for the purposes of this residential loan. The mortgage broker will submit your application for a residential loan to a participating lender with which it from time to time contracts upon such terms and conditions as you may request or a lender may require. The lenders have asked that this form be furnished to you to clarify the role of mortgage brokers. This supplements other disclosures or agreements required by law that you should receive from the mortgage broker concerning your application.

SECTION 1: NATURE OF THE RELATIONSHIP. In connection with this mortgage loan.

In states where the mortgage broker is not required by law to act as your agent the broker may be working as an independent contractor. If you are unsure of the relationship, please ask the mortgage broker for clarification

The mortgage broker has separate independent contractor agreements with various lenders.

While the mortgage broker seeks to assist you in meeting your financial needs, it does not distribute the products of all lenders or investors in the market and cannot guarantee the lowest price or best terms available in the market.

SECTION 2: THE BROKERS COMPENSATION. The lenders whose loan products are distributed by the mortgage broker generally provide their loan products to the mortgage broker at a wholesale rate

The retail price a mortgage broker offers you - your interest rate, total points and fees - will include the broker's compensation.

In some cases, the mortgage broker may be paid all of its compensation by either you or the lender.

Alternatively, the mortgage broker may be paid a portion of its compensation by both you and the lender. For example, in some cases, if you would rather pay a lower interest rate you may pay higher up-front points and fees.

Also in some cases, if you would rather pay less up-front, you may wish to have some or all of your fees paid directly to the lender, which will result in a higher interest rate and higher monthly loan payments than you would otherwise be required to pay.

The mortgage broker may also be paid by the lender based on (I) the value of the loan or related servicing rights in the market place or (II) other services, goods or facilities performed or provided by the mortgage broker to the lender.

You may work with the mortgage broker to select the method in which it receives its compensation depending on your financial needs, subject to the lender's loan program requirements and credit underwriting guidelines.

The amount of fees and charges that you pay in connection with your loan will be estimated on your Good Faith Estimate. The final amount will be disclosed on your HUD-1 or HUD-1A Settlement statement.
